Jewish Passover.

On Wednesday evening, March 27, Jews throughout the world began the celebration of their annual festival of Passover (pesach), which commemorates the deliverance of the Jews from Egyptian bondage according to the story told in the 2th chapter of the book of Exodus.

Beginning at sundown on the 14th day of the Hebrew month of Xissan, and continuing, among the Reform Jews for a period of seven days, and among their orthodox brethren for eight days, Passover is celebrated as a festival of freedom, all the ceremonial observances incident to the feast being symbolic of the idea of liberty.

When The War Will End!

(Contributed)

Absolute knowledge have I none; But my aunt's washerwoman's sister's son Heard a policeman on his beat, Say to a laborer on the street, That he had a letter just last week, Written in the finest Greek, From a Chinese coolie in Timbuctoo, Who said the negroes in Cuba knew Of a colored kid in a Texas town, Who got it strait from a circus clown, That a man in Klondike heard the news, From a gang of South American Jews, About somebody in Borneo, Who heard a man who claims to know Of a sweet society female fake Whose moter-in-law will undertake To prove that her seventh husband's sister's niece, Had stated in a printed piece, That she has a son who has a friend That knows when the war is going to end!

Adrift with HumorPart of the Excitement.

After the smash-up a colored auntie was discovered contentedly munching a chicken wing.

"Weren't you hurt or scared in the smash-up?" she was asked.

"Law, no. Was dey a smash-up?" she inquired. "Ah t'o't dese yere combustifications went right along wif de ticket."—Country Gentleman.

Very Natural.

May—Did Jim have more than one love affair?

Flo—Only one, I believe.

May—When he fell in love with you?

Flo—Oh, dear no. He had fallen in love with himself long before he met me.

A Dilemma.

"Life is nothin' but trouble."

"Cheer up. Didn't you get ten dollars for puttin' yer picture in the paper as bein' cured of all ills by Pinkerton's tonic?"

"Yes; an' all my relatives are tellin' me now I'm cured I'll have to go to work."

Accident of Birth.

"It is said that this idol of the screen is in reality a red-blooded fellow."

"Maybe so. I don't suppose it is his fault if he happens to have regular features, irresistible eyes and curly hair."

SAD EXPERIENCE.

"And haven't ye ever tried ter git work?"

"Yep. I wunst tried ter git work fer two of me pals, but dey wouldn't take it."

Forced Courtesy.

I rose with great alacrity To offer her my seat. 'Twas a question whether she or I Should stand upon my feet.

—Cornell Widow.

Additional Grievance.

"It must be rather trying for a talkative woman like Mrs. Gabbles to be married to a man as deaf as Mr. Gabbles."

"So it is. And to make matters worse, Mrs. Gabbles has a lurking suspicion that Mr. Gabbles lost his hearing just to spite her."

Too Pushing.

"I had an idea I'd grow up and own this business some day," said the discharged office boy.

"That's just why you were fired," said the boss. "Ever since you started here you've been acting as if you already owned the business."

Couldn't Change Here.

Applicant—What is your daughter's name?

Mistress—Her name is Nora.

Applicant—Oh, that's too bad! I'm afraid you'll have to call her something else. My name is Nora, too.

Sanitary Engineering.

Dormer—Why are you putting your birthday candy away?

Dormee—So as not to expose it to galloping consumption.—Cornell Widow.

The Motive.

"I knew a college fellow who was hazed by having a lot of jam rubbed in his hair."

"I guess the other fellows wanted his sweet impressions to stick."

Think It Over.

"Is this a second-hand store?" Inquired a customer.

"Yes," said the storekeeper expectantly.

"Well, I want one for my watch."

Conclusive Proof.

Judge—You say that you were running slowly when you ran over the man?

Chauffeur—Well, judge, my number is AC143731363, and he got it.

Nitrate of Soda.

The Farmers Bank at Rockingham has been designated by the Department of Agriculture as the distributor of Nitrate of Soda ordered of the Government by farmers of Richmond county.

There is now in port at Wilmington soda ordered for small grain, and the farmers have been notified to call at this bank and pay for same so that shipping and delivery can be made promptly. Any applicant failing to pay will be dropped from the list.

Soda for corn and cotton will be delivered in May and June; the soda to be delivered now is for small grain.

Snow White.

(From Rockingham School News)

The operetta, "Snow White," was a decided success last Friday night, the proceeds amounting to $81.70, being turned over to the local Red Cross.

The play was enjoyed by a crowd that filled the school auditorium. Jessie McAulay, Mamie West, Messrs. Head and Brown, the dwarfs and the choruses of dainty forest children were all tremendous successes and reflected great credit upon the director of the play, Miss Bernice Turner.

High Soap Prices Arouse Interest in Home Made Soap

Women all over the country are saving money by making their own soap. Try this:

First, set a large can or jar in your kitchen; throw into it all meat skin, waste grease, bones and other kitchen scrap that has any grease in it or on it.

When the can or jar is full, render it (by boiling) and you will obtain enough clear grease to make a big batch of dandy soap, cheaper and purer than any you can buy.

With Grease and Red Devil Lye

You will find home soap-making so easy and economical that it will be a genuine pleasure. On the label of every can of Red Devil Lye are complete directions for making soap by the cold process or by boiling.

Anybody Can Make Soap

If they have Red Devil Lye and grease. Furthermore, soap making at home pays big because you buy nothing but Red Devil Lye—the other ingredients are actually saved out of the waste that you have been throwing away. You will thank us every time you use Red Devil Home Made Soap.

Gentlemen—Please send me your free booklet on peeling patches, spraying fruit trees, making compost, etc. I cannot begin to tell you how pleased I am with Red Devil Lye. Got great results in making my soap. Yours truly,

E. H. RUTLEDGE,

ALL EFFORTS TO FIND RELIEF MET FAILURE, SAYS THIS MISSIONARYWell Known Missionary Worker of North Carolina And Florida Says Peplac Has Instilled New Life In Her.

For ten years a sufferer from nervousness and indigestion and unable to find relief in any medicine, Mrs. May A. Gurganious, of 1011 Castle Street, Wilmington, states that upon the advice of interested friends she consented to give Peplac a trial, with the result that today she is well on the road to perfect health.

Mrs. Gurganious is well known as a missionary of the gospel not only in North Carolina, but in Florida as well. In both of these states she has been a prominent figure in the work of spreading the doctrine of christianity.

In commenting on her experience to the Peplac expert Mrs. Gurganious said: "Its wonderful just what two bottles of Peplac have done for me; I am feeling now like a new woman and that new life has been installed into me. I get up in the morning feeling refreshed and ready for anything the day may bring forth. Its a pleasure for me to dress my little girl and get her off to school and then take up my household duties, something I haven't been able to do for almost ten years."

Owing to her continued ill health Mrs. Gurganious found it impossible to continue her religious labors and had to give them up sometime ago. Now however since she began taking Peplac, her health is so improved that she hopes to take up this good work in which she finds so much pleasure.

Peplac, the ideal reconstructive tonic, appetizer, blood and system purifier and invigorant which is spreading health among so many men and women of North Carolina, is sold and recommended at L. G. Fox drug store who will gladly explain the merits of this great constructive tonic.
